

Biography– Amy Woodard

Amy Woodard is the Business Operations Specialist for CAES. She is responsible for coordination of business outcomes, project management, and CAES process improvement. Prior to joining CAES, Amy worked for Zions Bank as the Regional Commercial Real Estate Portfolio Manager and Vice President. As Portfolio Manager, she managed the commercial construction and real estate loan portfolio for the region with individual projects ranging from $1 million to $80 million. Amy specializes in underwriting, construction contracts, and financial analysis. She holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Idaho State University.